

Patches (aka Olivia)

This is the story of Patches, her previous name was Oliva. We were looking for a dalmatian that needed a home with the help of Beth, Sandy and Tena we got a very special girl. She came to us from Houston Texas -- that is a big deal -- we live in Illinois. A transport was arranged and on August 31st at got our special girl! She is fantastic! She has been with us for just over a month and WOW such a change from when we first met, she was a little shy and not too sure, but now - she is up to almost anything. She loves to go for walks, play ball with her volleyball in the back yard, loves going places with us, she cannot get to the car fast enough when we are headed out -- she does not want to miss a thing! We have Poochie a 13 year old Chow Shepard mix who we also adore and they have become quite the buddies. Poochie is teaching her the ropes -- they love getting on the golf cart and taking a spin around the neighborhood. Patches celebrated her 1st birthday on Sept 24th with party hats and twinkies, what more could a girl ask for -- Oh yes there were presents too! Here are just a few pictures of her and Poochie just enjoying life, what more could you ask for.

Mmmmm... love this bone!

Hey Poochie... let's play!

Are we getting out here, Poochie?

Too much play... time to recharge.

This bed is more comfy than that ole couch! 😊
