

Gordy

(aka Gordie)

Gordy is getting the hang of being a pet. He is a happy, happy boy. The daily routines have become the norm for him. He sticks to me like glue, earning him the nickname of Pegamento (Spanish for glue). His favorite things--eating of course, going for walks, playing. He is still afraid of the dark and ocean waves. Rain is not acceptable--Gordy says he is a dry clean only model. I look forward to many years with him. Allie has accepted him and 16-year-old Ranger appreciates Allie's focus removed from him.

Sincerely,
Sadie J.
