

Gohan

(aka Forest)

Gohan (Forest) came into our lives a shy and scared puppy, but with time he became a happy and energetic dog. He has made our home a happier place, and what is a home without unconditional love waiting on the other side of the door?

Gohan is always ready to go outside and play with his new partner in crime Lassie (Yorkie mix). Changing all our lives and helping our family grow. We are deeply and sincerely grateful for the opportunity the Dalmatian Rescue of Colorado has given us to adopt.
