

We contacted Beth and Dalmatian Rescue of Colorado in November 2012 looking for a playmate for our three year old Dal, Denver. We found Deuce in a shelter in Houston. We drove down on a Friday night so we could be there first thing in the morning. He was so skinny, sad and beat-up when they brought him out. Then he had to ride home with his new sister in the same space for four hours! We all survived and he's been nothing but a sweetheart from the first minute. He just wants attention and love 24x7. We weren't sure if we were fostering Deuce or keeping him, but it didn't take long to make that decision. He's not thrilled about Denver's energy level or playing ball, but they have managed to find a happy medium. They love their walks and trips to the dog park. It makes me so happy to see him running and enjoying the park knowing how sad he was before. He still has a long way to go, but he gets stronger and more beautiful every day and I'm so glad we made the trip!
