

Ango (aka CiCi)

In January Angostura (Ango) joined the family. And her timing could not have been better. She provides the most unwavering love and adoration. We do not deserve dogs. She just graduated training class with flying colors! And we are looking forward to doing agility classes. But what I'm most excited about is... the second she's cleared of heart worms, she'll be a very, Very, VERY happy running buddy. ❤️

Hey Mom, are we going for a walk soon?

Taking a nap with my mom and the kitty cat.
